

Best Practices in Vinayak College, Lakshmangarh

The Vinayak PG College was established in 2007-08 with goal to give good education to youth in Lakshmangarh. The college management with well qualified faculties achieves the goal with proper discipline in the students. The students are in well dressed with punctuality. The seminars are organized which motivates the students and improve their skills. The college organizes cultural and sports activities. The faculties give remedial classes to the students. The college has positive and healthy environment.