

Institutional distinctiveness in Vinayak PG College, Lakshmangarh

Vinayak College Lakshmangarh is the college with undergraduate and postgraduate courses with good infrastructure. The faculties do innovative teaching that improves learning of students. The college organizes several seminars related to skill development and gender equity for the students. The college celebrates national and international days and also performs special activities like sharam dan, swacch abhiyan, plantation etc with students. The college organizes several cultural and sports activities for the students. The college organizes several educational trips such as sanctuary, museum, Biodiversity Park, hospital visit etc where students learn several things in different areas. The college has enthusiastic and positive environment.